

Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/zane-rouguine
(LinkedIn)

Certifications

Google Ads Search Certification
Digital Acumen

Honors-Awards

USC Marshall Dean's List
Paul Bader Family Endowed Scholarship

Zane Rouguine

Accounting Student at the University of Southern California |
Incoming PwC Audit Associate
Los Angeles, California, United States

Summary

My name is Zane and I am a goal-oriented and driven student at the University of Southern California's Leventhal School of Accounting, dedicated to working diligently and efficiently. I am prepared to contribute to team goals, and excel in communication. I have strong client-facing skills, and succeed in composing analytical data and responses. My passion lies in cultivating a successful career in the audit practice, and I am eager to further develop my accounting skills with the aim of reaching executive or higher, corporate positions in Public Accounting in the long term.

Experience

PwC

5 months

Campus Ambassador

August 2023 - Present (3 months)

Los Angeles, California, United States

Advance Audit Intern

June 2023 - August 2023 (3 months)

Los Angeles, California, United States

Banking and Capital Markets

University of Southern California

Teaching Assistant

September 2022 - January 2023 (5 months)

Los Angeles, California, United States

As a teaching assistant for several Accounting courses at the Marshall School of Business, my responsibilities included assisting students with their questions or concerns, organizing the online course management system, and supporting the Professor in student grading and other related tasks.

Independent CPA/Consultant

Accounting Intern

September 2021 - December 2021 (4 months)

- Supported regional CPA firm with communication with clients composed of individuals, corporations, and real estate entities.
- Assisted CPA and tax team with client calls, emails, organizing client tax documents, and making sure to compile all the important information for our CPA Partners ensuring them the ability to support their client's financial and tax needs.
- Worked with the firm's lead administrator on journal entries and bank reconciliations.

A Snail's Pace Running Shop

Senior Sales Associate

July 2018 - December 2021 (3 years 6 months)

Monrovia, California, United States

- Responsible for providing customers the best fitting experience in the industry, utilizing the sales techniques and product information received from Snail Pace University training courses.
- Implemented a comprehensive 5-Step fit process, involving customer interviews, video camera and treadmill analysis, and educating customers on product benefits tailored to their specific goals.
- Assisted management with merchandising, inventory control, and other basic duties.

Education

University of Southern California

Bachelor of Science, Accounting · (January 2022 - May 2024)

Pasadena City College

· (August 2019 - June 2021)